General Description

Reporting to the Director of the CUNY EDGE Program, the CUNY EDGE advisor (part time) serves as the one of six advisors responsible for the department's outreach efforts to students from diverse populations and provides distinct services to students from low-income backgrounds.

The Borough of Manhattan Community College is one of the seven Community Colleges of the City University of New York (CUNY). It is alive with ideas and innovation, and supportive of the innate human desire to strive for self-improvement. It reflects the best of downtown Manhattan: the culture of Tribeca, the vibrancy of Wall Street, and the promise of the Statue of Liberty. We are one of the most unique community colleges in the country. Under the leadership of its President, Antonio Pérez, The Borough of Manhattan Community College has experienced unprecedented faculty hiring and an expansion of its curricular offerings. In 2015, Community College Week ranked BMCC among the Top 100 associate degree producers nationwide. BMCC ranks #11 among all community colleges in the number of associate degrees conferred in all disciplines. BMCC also ranks as a top associate degree producer across disciplines and majors including its criminal justice program which ranks #2 among U.S. community colleges. As evidenced by so many on-going developments, the College offers its many new faculty and staff the opportunity to shape the future of their institution.
