General Description

Founded in 1870 as New York City's first teacher-preparation school, the Hunter School of Education continues its deep commitment to advancing our understanding and practice of education in an urban context and to engaging our students as they prepare to enter increasingly complex and diverse communities as professionals in education. Through research, teaching and community engagement, SOE faculty, staff and students make significant contributions to improving the lives of youth, families, and the community.

The Office of Partnership Programs manages the alternative certification, subsidized, and non-traditional programs within the Hunter College School of Education and supports students in these programs. Working in partnership with a variety of local and national organizations, we offer programs in a wide range of teacher certification areas and school leadership certification for both novice and experienced teachers. Our programs offer participants the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in schools while enrolled in graduate coursework at Hunter College with many providing subsidized tuition.

The Office of Partnership Programs is seeking an Assistant Director, responsible for the successful implementation of all aspects of a portfolio of teacher and/or leader preparation programs. They must have strong program management skills with the ability to skillfully balance big picture priorities with operational details. The Assistant Director must be equally skilled in advising students, collaborating with faculty, and building strong relationships with our external partners. The Assistant Director serves as a leader in the office, and must be able to innovate and nimbly adapt to a changing portfolio of programs in accordance with our partners' needs.

Other Duties

- Manage day-to-day aspects of several alternative certification teacher and/or leader preparation programs

- Coordinate and facilitate program activities with external partner organizations through regular formal and informal meetings
