General Description

John Jay College of Criminal Justice is seeking an experienced and detail-oriented individual for the part-time position of Pre-Award Sponsored Research Assistant in the Office for the Advancement of Research (OAR).

This individual must be a self-starter and extremely organized. The Pre-Award Sponsored Research Assistant must be able to multi-task, prioritize deadlines and manage competing demands. This individual will coordinate a broad range of tasks and services with the goal of expanding and enhancing faculty and staff outreach regarding funding opportunities and supporting proposal submissions for extramural grants and contracts to federal, state/local, private and other sponsors.

The new Pre-Award Sponsored Research Assistant would report to and support the Director of Sponsored Programs. The Pre-Award Assistant would support the Director in her efforts to increase outreach, provide more individualized support to faculty and staff interested in applying for grants and contracts on behalf of the College and ultimately proposal submission.

The Office for the Advancement of Research oversees all research operations at John Jay College of Criminal Justice, a senior liberal arts college within the City University of New York. The College has developed strong and multifaceted expertise in sponsored research in many areas related to its core mission, including: crime control, eyewitness testimony, forensic science, police training, prisoner reentry, the psychology of violent behavior, public health and justice, science education, and many other fields. In addition, as a liberal arts college, we have faculty involved in diverse areas of scholarship. The goal of this position is to support the Office for the Advancement of Research in its efforts to stimulate faculty and staff to explore research projects, develop collaborations, and pursue and administer external funding and research.

We are looking to fill this position quickly, so interested applicants should apply as soon as possible in order to be considered.

Other Duties

The Pre-Award Sponsored Research Assistant will perform the following duties:
