General Description

The CUNY EDGE program serves CUNY students collecting public welfare benefits. CUNY has a 20-year relationship with the City's Human Resources Administration (HRA) to support public assistance recipients to attend CUNY, meet HRA work obligations, graduate in a timely manner, and find gainful employment. Collectively each year, the programs serve 4,800 students across 19 campuses.

CUNY EDGE is currently in the midst of a strategic planning process to revamp core programming to better support students on public assistance enrolled at CUNY. The new program model balances academic advising and personal supports with workforce preparation, leadership development, and community engagement while maintaining students' compliance with HRA regulations. This model blends elements of successful college completion programs with work opportunities, personal development, and academic excellence.
