General Description

LaGuardia Community College's Center for Immigrant Education and Training (CIET) seeks an Educational Case Manager (ECM). Housed in LaGuardia's Division of Adult & Continuing Education, CIET provides no-cost educational and training programs designed to assist low-income immigrant English language learners to advance on their educational and career pathways and to achieve their civic and parent engagement goals.

The primary responsibilities of this position include:

- Advising and motivating immigrant clients in developing and persisting in their educational and career pathways, both through in-class workshops and one-on-one follow-up sessions.
- Designing and leading workshops on such topics as goal setting, US-style resume development and interviewing skills, managing test anxiety and stress, navigating systems, and self-care.
- Coordinating outreach, recruitment, and pre-assessment sessions for new and wait-listed applicants.
- Tracking student progress, attendance and satisfaction, while completing all data entry tasks as required by funders and the university, and observing established confidentiality measures.
- Collaborating with ESOL instructors and staff members to monitor and document student and alumnae progress and outcomes, both during courses and after student exit.
- Identifying and establishing joint referral relationships with relevant community-based organizations, social service agencies, and local immigrant organizations to meet client needs.
- Providing crisis intervention, support, and referrals to social services for students.
- Attending all NYSED Regional Adult Education Network (RAEN) and other professional development trainings, as required.
- Establishing and maintaining an active job-entry referral process with the NYC WorkForce1 system, the ACE Career Development Center, and employer partners for students with employment goals.
- Participating in funder update and reporting activities, including the writing of monthly and quarterly reports on program and student outcomes using compiled data and student feedback.

Qualifications

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in social work, counseling or a related field; Master's degree preferred.
- Relevant experience in counseling and/or leading workshops for English language learners.
- Strong awareness of the barriers facing immigrants integrating into the US workforce and academic environment, and familiarity with strengths-based, culturally competent approaches.
- Some weekday evening hours required (approximately 5-8 pm) to serve evening students.
- Bilingual skills a plus.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality of student records, as appropriate;
- Ability to respond calmly to emergencies and to fashion solutions to student, administrative, or technical problems; ability to seek assistance when needed;
- Ability to establish community networks and deal effectively with community groups;
- Ability to write clearly and produce/edit accurate, well-organized, and understandable reports;
- Ability to communicate effectively; ability to listen and respond to the concerns/ideas of others;
- Ability to work on a team, as well as work independently.
