General Description

The Liberty Partnerships Program (LPP) was established in 1988 under Section 612, Subdivision 6 of the Education Law to address the significant dropout rate among New York's youth.

The legislation states "the failure of many young New Yorkers to complete their secondary education limits their opportunity for a life of fulfillment, prevents them from advancing into postsecondary education and hinders the State's efforts to provide a well-trained workforce for business and industry in New York."

Medgar Evers College Liberty Partnerships Program works in four Target Schools in Brooklyn and offers Holistic Support to at-risk students to support them in graduating from high school.
