General Description

About the CUNY School of Professional Studies:

The CUNY School of Professional Studies (CUNY SPS) provides online and on campus degree and certificate programs that meet the needs of adults who are looking to finish or transition into a bachelor's degree, earn a master's degree or certificate in a specialized field, advance in the workplace, or change careers.

Home to the first fully online degree programs at the City University of New York, CUNY SPS offers fully accredited degree and certificate programs for students who want the flexibility and convenience of online education. CUNY SPS was ranked in the top 5% in the Nation in U.S. News & World Report's list of the 2020 Best Online Bachelor's Degree Programs.

Drawing on CUNY's nationally and internationally renowned faculty and practitioners, as well as industry and education partners, the School's programs provide opportunities for personal growth, job mobility, greater civic participation, and new ways to advance knowledge.

Within CUNY SPS, the Office of Professional Education and Workplace Learning (PEWL) designs custom workplace learning programs to help organizations achieve their goals. To our partnerships, we bring knowledge of research-based learning practices as well as experience in developing innovative programs.

Description:

CUNY SPS seeks an experienced detail-oriented learning and development professional to join our contract training team in the role of Senior Program Manager, Training Operations. This role will be an integral part of the Energy Management Training team that manages the design, development, delivery and administration of relevant learning programs on behalf of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services' Division of Energy Management. This program prepares City facilities personnel to make energy- smart decisions that assist the City of New York in meeting its greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions reduction goals. The program is designed to help facility professionals across City agencies envision a learning path specifically targeted to their professional and personnel development goals.

The Senior Program Manager, Training Operations ensures the effective delivery of new and existing training programs. This is accomplished through: ongoing assessment of learning outcomes; identification and implementation of best practices for adult learning; and ensuring the energy management program aligns to the technical needs of the target audience. The Senior Program Manager, Training Operations has an integral role in the project management of learning programs, as well as, review and approval of vendor deliverables, budgeting and procurement, quality assurance, communications, reporting, and leading a small team of CUNY SPS learning professionals.

The Senior Program Manager, Training Operations will collaborate with the Senior Program Manager, Program Effectiveness to assess surveys designed to evaluate and measure results, throughout the training cycle. This role also directs a training team that includes Learning and Development Program Associates and a Program Coordinator.

The Senior Program Manager, Training Operations will support the onboarding of part time instructors to deliver energy management courses, inclusive of coaching in adult learning best practices, and assessing instructional effectiveness.
