General Description

Queens College is currently seeking a Head Women's Swimming & Diving Coach. This is a part time position (no benefits).

The Head Coach will be responsible for leading a competitive NCAA Division II swim program, through proper recruitment, planning and development.

This position is responsible for but not limited to, the recruitment and retention of quality student-athletes; athlete development; team training; player management; organization of team non-competitive related activities such as community service activities, fundraising, and alumni events; and the overall oversight of the program that must abide by all NCAA, ECC, CUNY, and Queens College rules and regulations. This position will also be responsible for a team budget and the administrative paperwork associated with managing a College program. Upon arrival to the department, the coach must successfully pass a NCAA recruiting exam, defensive driving exam, sexual harassment class and first aid/CPR.

Other Duties

The Queens College department of athletics offers varsity, intramural and recreational athletics opportunities to members of its campus community. The college sponsors 17 varsity sports at the NCAA Division II level, with the Knights competing predominantly in the East Coast Conference. Queens College's department of athletics encourages all student-athletes to complete a meaningful academic degree program, participate fully in the college community and prepare for life after college athletics.
