General Description

Grounded in the Liberal Arts tradition, the College of Staten Island is committed to the highest standards in teaching, research, and scholarship. Drawing on the rich heritage of the City University of New York that has provided access to excellence in higher education since 1847, the College of Staten Island offers that same opportunity in New York City's Borough of Staten Island. The College is dedicated to helping its students fulfill their creative, aesthetic, and educational aspirations through competitive and rigorous undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. We embrace the strength of our diversity, foster civic mindedness, and nurture responsible citizens for our city, country, and the world.

The Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development serves the diverse needs of the community by offering college preparation and remedial programs, adult learning programs, ground breaking programs that serve young adults ages 18-24, English language learning programs and a variety of community service programs, including the Adult Learning Center.

The Director of 1199 Student Support Programs is responsible for all functions related to student recruitment and enrollment for the HC4 Program and the Independent Student Program. Once students are enrolled, the Director will facilitate the necessary student support strategies and career/readiness initiatives for students while continuously assessing student progress. The Director will also develop and maintain relationships with community based organizations and the 1199 Union. This position requires strong interpersonal and communication skills, comfort working in a team/collaborative environment, and a high level of organizational skills. The Director reports directly to the Executive Director of the Office of Continuing Education and Professional Development.
