General Description

Grounded in the Liberal Arts tradition, the College of Staten Island is committed to the highest standards in teaching, research, and scholarship. Drawing on the rich heritage of the City University of New York that has provided access to excellence in higher education since 1847, the College of Staten Island offers that same opportunity in New York City's Borough of Staten Island. The College is dedicated to helping its students fulfill their creative, aesthetic, and educational aspirations through competitive and rigorous undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. We embrace the strength of our diversity, foster civic mindedness, and nurture responsible citizens for our city, country, and the world.

Recognizing that each student has unique ambitions and abilities, the mission of the Adult Literacy & Language Program (ALLP) and the CUNY Language Immersion Program (CLIP), is to provide quality literacy instruction and customized support designed to assist English Language Learners, and adults pursuing their high school equivalency diploma with achieving their goals, whether that be entering post-secondary education, training or employment.

ALLP & CLIP seeks an energetic, creative and proactive professional for the Administrative Coordinator position. The successful candidate will have experience in education as a teacher, student advisor, or program manager preferably working with diverse populations of adults, HSE and/or ESOL students. The Administrative Coordinator is responsible for the enhancement and management of the ALLP & CLIP, including working closely with and providing support to students, case managers, instructional and noninstructional staff. The Administrative Coordinator will work under the supervision of the Associate Director of Language and Literacy, and support administration with the goal of providing the highest possible quality program for staff and students.
