General Description

Grounded in the Liberal Arts tradition, the College of Staten Island (CSI) is committed to the highest standards in teaching, research, and scholarship. Drawing on the rich heritage of the City University of New York that has provided access to excellence in higher education since 1847, the College of Staten Island offers that same opportunity in New York City's Borough of Staten Island.

CSI's Creative Exchange Continuing Education, lifelong learning program serves adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). We offer learning experiences for personal growth that are unique to college, in and out of the classroom. Our programs are responsive to our student community's self-identified needs, regardless of ability, and align with best practices in the field of post-secondary education for adults with IDD.

The Creative Exchange Instructor reports to the Director of Community Educational Engagement, and will lead two, in-person lifelong learning cinema courses for adults with IDD.

The first course will explore the personal and societal lessons learned from Walt Disney and the Disney empire. The second course will explore how movies and their social commentary. Please see our catalog at csi.cuny.edu/creative to view course descriptions.
