General Description

CUNY K-16 Initiatives Gas Safety Squad Program Coordinator (part-time, 19 hours per week)

The Office K-16 Initiatives at The City University of New York (CUNY) creates innovative pathways for young New Yorkers to envision and achieve success by engaging strategic partners in confronting systemic educational inequities.

CUNY's Office of K-16 Initiatives recognizes that one of the best predictors of college success is entering prepared for college-level studies. We are home to a group of innovative programs that share a common goal: helping NYC public school students make a successful transition to college, careers and life beyond. We support the city's commitment to equity by ensuring that high quality transition programs help eliminate achievement gaps between racial, ethnic, and socio-economic groups.

CUNY K-16 and Con Edison have joined efforts to increase knowledge and understanding of gas safety issues among all New Yorkers by creating the Gas Safety Squad. Educating the public about gas safety begins by reaching school-aged children and their families. Over a three-year period, CUNY will train New York City public middle school students on gas safety issues, serving approximately 10,000 students over 3 and a half years.

Other Duties

Responsibilities:

The Gas Safety Squad Program Coordinator will plan, develop, and implement the Gas Safety Squad program. The Program Coordinator will plan and execute all programmatic aspects of the program, assess and solve problems, and implement project changes as needed.
