General Description

MISSION

In collaboration with Reel Works, the Film Department at Brooklyn College and the Department of Career Development and Internships, MediaMKRS provides undergraduate media students across CUNY campuses with pre-professional training, career development opportunities, and internship placements through industry partners.

DESCRIPTION

MediaMKRS is a partnership between Reel Works and the NYC Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment, the City University of New York, media companies and unions and to train, credential and prepare talented New Yorkers for careers in media and entertainment.

The CUNY Department of Career Development and Internships, Reel Works, and the Film Department at Brooklyn College, launched a multi-campus media career development initiative, MediaMKRS. This initiative focuses on cultivating media industry partnerships with the intention of establishing a network of internship opportunities for CUNY media students. The initiative will also provide pre-professional and career readiness training to media students across CUNY. The office is seeking a motivated and dynamic individual with excellent networking skills to act as the internship coordinator for this initiative. This Position is funded through the end of the fiscal year (June 2022) with a possibility of extension.

Other Duties

Reporting to the Career Programs Manager at Reel Works and Director of Academic Affairs & Operations in the Film department at Brooklyn College, the Internship Coordinator will be responsible for the following tasks:
