- Responsible for day-to-day inception, planning, development, and oversight of all work pertaining to assigned special projects and programs.
- Analyzes internal data, external research, and best practice studies to make informed, strategic recommendations.
- Solicits advice from education and business partners and serves as their primary liaison for integration of sustainable continuing education learning programs.

- Ensures that campus partners are educated and equipped to support and champion Training and Development programs; monitors quality of program implementation and administration as executed by campus partners.
- Facilitates an ACE working group for the sharing of best practices and lessons learned from CUNY ACE campus' training programs.
- Works directly with senior leaders and subject matter experts in high growth industries to ensure that learning programs are building strategically important capabilities for the broad population of New Yorkers.
- Oversees analyses on program effectiveness, reporting to CEWP leaders and providing insights, or recommendations.
- Directly manages program development administration, analysis, and reporting activities.
- Represents and navigates the University to and for external partners and forms strategic partnerships.
- Serves as an internal consultant to and advises college partners to implement strategic partnerships and initiatives.
- Liaises with one or more vendors, or third-party partners delivering technology learning and career services' solutions, ensuring quality selection, service, and delivery.
- Advises on special projects related to process reengineering and business development within CEWP and consults with CUNY Campuses. Serves to align assigned initiatives with CUNY-wide business strategies.
- Directs one or more full-time professional staff in program implementation and operations.
- Recruits, directs, motivates, and develops staff, maximizing their individual contribution, their professional growth, and their ability to function effectively with their colleagues as a team.
- Attend staff meetings and trainings as required.
- Perform special projects and other duties as assigned.
