General Description

MISSION

Children excel when they spend their most critical years with dedicated, educated, trained, and well-compensated individuals in order to thrive. The New York Early Childhood Professional Development Institute leads the work to establish and implement an early childhood workforce system to ensure funding, standards and competencies, career development resources, qualifications and credentials, professional development (training and strengths-based coaching), and program quality assurance and improvement for individuals who work with young children throughout New York. Housed at the City University of New York, the Institute is a fast-paced, dynamic public/private partnership that is committed to the early childhood workforce across New York State.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Director of Early Childhood leads the Institute's projects that require an expertise in direct service to children and the workforce. The Director will manage coaching and induction initiatives for educators and providers and their supervisors, the design and implementation of professional development for teachers and leaders serving young children, supervise a team of screening and assessment specialists, and other special projects as they arise.

Equipped with a wide range of experience in the field, the ideal candidates will have experience in a leadership position, an intimate knowledge of early childhood teacher preparation and a deep understanding of the professional development needs of the early childhood workforce. They will have had experience creating and providing high quality professional development, including coaching; supervising a staff; and building partnerships with agencies, funders, and institutions of higher education.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIESLeadership and System Development

coaching, and induction initiatives

- Consider and test innovative strategies to solve challenges facing the field of early childhood education, and build the sector portfolio
- Establish trusting and productive relationships with the City and State agencies, early childhood programs and providers, and other external partners.
- Lead systems and policy change to advance equitable best practices in early childhood
- Serve on the Institute's leadership team and work with strategic partners
- Collaborate with other Institute program leaders to design effective initiatives that utilize relevant Institute and CUNY resources
- Write papers and other resource materials.

Team Supervision

- Support and supervise a team of early childhood coaches and create and manage relationships with fee-for-service partners
- Support and supervise a team of professional development trainers, manage training requests with the team
- Support and supervise a team of screening and assessment specialists and liaise with funder and agency partners

Project Management, Data and Reporting

- Work with the Web and Database Administrator to refine the coaching database for tracking and reporting input data and outcomes, as well as user feedback surveys and other data-centered applications
- Work with executive leadership in support of writing grant and funding proposals
- Manage projects, collect data and prepare funding and project reports as needed for individual projects

Other Duties

- Attend staff meetings and trainings as required.
- Perform special projects and other duties as assigned.

Qualifications
