General Description

MISSION

The City University of New York (CUNY) is the nation's largest urban public university and serves 275,000 degree-seeking students and 200,000 non-degree students across 25 campuses. 77% are students of color. CUNY's core mandate is to provide a high-quality, affordable education to all New Yorkers. CUNY is a springboard of economic mobility. 42% of students hail from households earning less than $20,000. In recent decades, CUNY has lifted more individuals from the lowest economic quintile to the highest economic quintile than the Ivy League, Stanford, Carnegie Mellon, and MIT combined.

The Office of Careers and Industry Partnerships (OCIP) is responsible for mobilizing the university's unparalleled scale, assets and diverse talent to fuel inclusive economic prosperity. OCIP is working to ensure that 1) CUNY graduates can launch or advance in sustaining careers of their choosing at salaries equivalent to their peers, 2) businesses can turn to CUNY to find the talent, services, and expertise they need to thrive, 3) faculty and staff come and stay at CUNY because the impact they can have on students' career trajectory is unparalleled and recognized, and 4) sustainable funding streams support proven interventions for bolstering student career success today and for years to come.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION

OCIP is seeking an Operations Specialist to help the Talent, Innovation and Industry Partnership team manage several initiatives that are cross cutting across the Division and OCIP. This person will report directly to the Senior Director of TIIP and will begin by helping to project manage the CUNY Inclusive Economy Initiative and Amazon Choice work.

The goal of CIE is to advance CUNY's goal of ensuring more students can launch and advance in sustaining careers in the sectors of their choice.
