General Description

The Prisoner Reentry Institute seeks a seasoned part-time Human Resources Director for our growing center within the John Jay College of Criminal Justice. PRI staff are hired through the Research Foundation of CUNY and RF policies are the authority under which we operate. RF handles payroll, time and attendance, and benefits administration. In that context, PRI needs an experienced HR professional to manage staff recruitment, orientation and training; lead the development of staff capacity to manage personnel effectively; and handle personnel issues, as needed.

We seek someone who can work approximately 19 hours a week.

About PRI

The Prisoner Reentry Institute is a center of research and action at the John Jay College of Criminal Justice/CUNY. PRI is committed to providing opportunities for people to live successfully in the community after involvement with the justice system. Capitalizing on its position within a large public university and recognizing the transformational power of education, PRI focuses much of its work on increasing access to higher education and career pathways for people with conviction histories. PRI's comprehensive and strategic approach includes direct service, research, technical assistance, and policy advocacy. Our staff of about 40 FTEs works in correctional facilities and the field, as well as in our midtown offices. PRI's direct service efforts include Fellowship Initiatives for John Jay students and a robust array of programs that create pathways to college and employment for people with conviction histories. That continuum of educational opportunities includes college readiness classes and testing inside jail and prisons, a college-in-prison program, comprehensive community-based academic reentry services, training in technology and navigator skills, and a growing portfolio of work readiness services.
